

A closer look at the Admin team...

You've read a little bit about the individuals within the team. Now we're delving deeper to find out more about them!

An interview with Paula Purshouse:

Q. What do you love about Redline?

- A. I love the passion from my colleagues and I think it's evident that we all genuinely care about making a difference to Aviation Security. It's been said many a time, but I must say it again that the staff here are second to none. Redline care about their employees, and I personally appreciate the understanding and support I've received over the last 5 years, including the kind gestures, like the beautiful bottle of Bollinger to celebrate their 10th Anniversary...who doesn't love a bottle of bubbly?

Q. Where are your favourite places in the world?

- A. Travelled to: Disney World, Florida – It's just magical. I've been several times and I only love it more each time I go. The last time I went, my husband Sam proposed to me, so this is another reason why it holds a special place in my heart. In the words of Peter Pan, it makes me never want to grow up.

Not travelled to: Travelling is not at the top of my bucket list, although I do love to get away once or twice a year. As long as you get me to a nice location (a decent hotel is a must!!), hot weather, and a stunning beach - I'm happy.

Q. What are your personal aspirations?

- A. Having recently purchased a new house, I'm focusing a lot on turning it into a beautiful family home. This should be our forever home, so I can't wait to enjoy family memories for years to come.

Q. What are your professional aspirations?

- A. Having a young family has put my professional aspirations to one side; that being said I've been with Redline 5 years and would naturally love to advance within my role, and also within the company eventually.

Q. If you were an animal, what would you be?

- A. According to my husband, I'd be a flamingo, because their noses are in the air! I clearly have no idea what he's talking about.

Q. What 3 words would your family use to describe you?

A. Snobby (self-confessed)
Mischievous
Loyal

Q. Any plans to add more beautiful babies to your family in the future?

A. Yes, I want a small football team! Jokes aside, I'd love to extend my family. The journey of becoming a mother has been so challenging, yet so rewarding, and Oliver is the most precious thing to me in the whole world. I can't wait to start the journey again.
